Which type of channel partner would you like to become?

- White Label – In this instance the end customer has no dealings with us at all, we send you your customers costs but you deal with all customer interactions, including sending out invoices, taking payment etc.
- White Label Bureau Billing – Here we invoice the end user directly (in your branding). The customer still pays directly to you and you still deal with all customer interactions
- White Label Reseller – a fully managed service where we undertake all billing, support you with customer interaction, fault logging etc.

We will make searches about you at Credit Reference Agencies, which we will keep a record of and will share the information obtained with other businesses in our group. In some instances we may also make a search on the personal credit file of principal directors. Should it become necessary to review an account, then again a credit reference may be sought and a record kept. We will monitor and record information relating to your trade performance and such records will be made available to Credit Reference Agencies who will share that information with other businesses when assessing applications for credit and fraud prevention.

Under the Data Protection Act you have the right to apply for a copy of the information we hold on you (for which we may charge a small admin fee) and to correct any inaccuracies.
